

nErDcampCT 2024 is coming on Saturday, March 2, 2024

We will be hosting an in-person event for lovers of literacy at Sedgwick Middle School, 128 Sedgwick Road, West Hartford, CT.

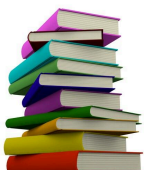

Join educators, librarians, authors and illustrators from Connecticut and beyond for an amazing day of learning together. (You don't have to be a CASL member to join in the fun!) Bring your ideas, thoughts & questions as we create the schedule for the day in the morning following the Edcamp model.

Over 30 authors & illustrators will participate in sessions and be signing books! Bring books for our book swap and get ready for your TBR (to be read) list to grow! Books will be available for purchase.
